Evans Update

Coaches Corner - Thank you for all of your prayer for my trip to Lake Geneva, Wisconsin. It was a wonderful trip that will impact youth workers across the country because of the partnership being formed with Lead 222.

Specifically, I'm offering free coaching for nine months to a few youth workers in my area that will help them be stronger in their character and their skill set.

Good News Lubbock - Progress is being made, and we are launching officially in January. This is what I talked about in June & July update that shared how it will help churches in Lubbock to begin praying for one another and for the schools around them.

One BIG Prayer Request: I've applied for a grant that would help this Good News Lubbock become a reality. I could know before the end of Fall. It wouldn't take care of everything but it could help a whole lot. So please pray for favor and that this vision of greater unity within the Lubbock Body of Christ will match the desires of the group that is considering the grant proposal.
